Mahamantra Program at Hindu temple on December 27, 2009

Naresh Das, Dayton, MD

Maha means great and mantra means the sound which removes ignorance.

More than 200 devotees thronged to Hindu temple on Dec 27th 2009 to participate in mahamantra chanting program organized by Jagannath Organization for Global Awareness (JOGA). After four hours of non-stop chanting of mahamantra some of the devotees said; i) can we arrange this program more often, ii) what a wonderful experience to chant and dance at the same time, iii) I like this chanting program than just sitting and singing bhajans, and iv) this mahamantra programs give everyone, children or adults, professional or amateur singers an opportunity to sing together. Finally all the devotees got Lord Jagannath's favorite chhapana bhoga (fifty six items) mahaprasada prepared by volunteer devotees.

(Picture of devotees chanting mahamantra and chapan bhoga offerings)

The transcendental vibration established by the chanting of mahamantra Hare KRISHNA, Hare KRISHNA, KRISHNA KRISHNA, Hare Hare, Hare Rama, Hare Rama, Rama Rama, Hare Hare is the sublime method of reviving our KRISHNA consciousness. As living spiritual souls we are all originally KRISHNA conscious entities, but due to our association with matter from time immemorial, our consciousness is now polluted by the material atmosphere. The material atmosphere, in which we are now living, is called Maya, or illusion. Maya means "that which is not." And what is this illusion? The illusion is that we are all trying to be lords of material nature, while actually we are under the grip of her stringent laws. When a servant artificially tries to imitate the all-powerful master, this is called illusion. In this polluted concept of life, we are all trying to exploit the resources of material nature, but actually we are becoming more and more entangled in her complexities. Therefore, although we are engaged in a hard struggle to conquer nature, we are ever more dependent on her. This illusory struggle against material nature can be stopped at once by revival of our KRISHNA consciousness.

KRISHNA consciousness is not an artificial imposition on the mind; this consciousness is the original energy of the living entity. When we hear the transcendental vibration, this consciousness is revived. And this process is recommended for this age by authorities. By practical experience also, one can perceive that by chanting this maha-mantra, or the Great Chanting for Deliverance, one can at once feel a transcendental ecstasy coming through from the spiritual stratum. And when one is factually on the plane of spiritual understanding--surpassing the stages of senses, mind, and intelligence--one is situated on the transcendental plane. This chanting of Hare KRISHNA, Hare KRISHNA, KRISHNA KRISHNA, Hare Hare, Hare Rama, Hare Rama, Rama Rama, Hare Hare is directly enacted from the spiritual platform, and thus this sound vibration surpasses all lower strata of consciousness-- namely sensual, mental, and intellectual. There is no need, therefore, to understand the language of the mantra, nor is there any need for mental speculation or any intellectual adjustment for chanting this maha-mantra. It springs automatically from the spiritual platform, and as such, anyone can take part in the chanting without any previous qualification, and dance in ecstasy.

We have seen this practically. Even a child can take part in the chanting. Of course, for one who is too entangled in material life, it takes a little more time to come to the standard point, but even such a materially engrossed man is raised to the spiritual platform very quickly.

The word Hara is the form of addressing the energy of the Lord, and the words KRISHNA and Rama are forms of addressing the Lord Himself. Both KRISHNA and Rama mean "the supreme pleasure," and Hara is the supreme pleasure energy of the Lord, changed to Hare in the vocative. The supreme pleasure energy of the Lord helps us to reach the Lord.

These three words, namely Hare, KRISHNA, and Rama, are the transcendental seeds of the mahamantra. The chanting is a spiritual call for the Lord and His internal energy, Hara, to give protection to the conditioned soul. Hari, or KRISHNA, and the Lord reveals Himself to the devotee who chants this mantra sincerely.

No other means of spiritual realization, therefore, is as effective in this age as chanting the mahamantra. Hare KRISHNA, Hare KRISHNA, KRISHNA KRISHNA, Hare Hare, Hare Rama, Hare Rama, Rama Rama, Hare Hare.

Chant mahamantra every day for a few minutes with complete devotion to God for a blissful life.

Surya Namaskar

Mina Subudhi

Surya Namaskar or Salutation to Sun is a very important part of Yogasana. It comprises exercises along with Asanas which bring general flexibility of the body, preparing it for further Asanas. There are 12 steps in each round. One can perform up to 12 rounds. The following prayer is chanted before starting Surya Namaskar:

Aum Hiranmayena Patrena
Satyasyapihitam Mukham
Tat Twam Pusan Apavru
Satya Dharmaya Drustaye.

The prayer means – “Like a lid to a vessel O Sun God, your golden sphere covers the entrance to Truth. Kindly open the entrance to lead me to Truth”.

Each round of Surya Namaskar is done after the utterance of Omkar with appropriate Bija Mantra, along with the corresponding name of Sun God in the following sequence:

Aum Hram Mitraya Namah
Aum Hrim Ravaye Namah
Aum Hrum Suryaya Namah
Aum Hraim Bhanave Namah
Aum Hroum Khagaya Namah
Aum Hrah Pusne Namah

Each step of Surya Namaskar is undertaken with the regulation of breath. These are as follows:

1. Stand erect with the legs together and palms together. Take the hands above the head and bend the trunk backwards. Here inhale fully.
2. Bend the body to the front and try to touch the knee by the forehead. Keep the palms on the floor on either side of the legs. Exhale completely.
3. Then bring the right leg back, take the left knee forward, look up and inhale. Touch the back of thigh with the heel.
4. Take the left leg also back, resting only on palms and toes, keep the body straight from head to toes inclined to the ground at about 30 degree. Exhale completely.

5. Now bend at the knee and rest the knees on the floor without altering the positions of the palms and toes. Rest the forehead on the ground. In this position inhale while moving backwards and then exhale completely.

6. Without moving the hands and toes, come forward on the chest and rest the forehead. This is called "Astanga Pranam". Stay in breath out condition. Forehead, chest, hands, knees and legs all will touch the ground. The buttocks will be raised up.

7. Inhale; raise the head and chest upwards, making the spine concave with support of palms. Legs and Palms should be straight.

8. Exhale, raise the buttocks, push the head down and have a complete arch with the heels touching the ground and palms on the floor. Chin will touch the chest.

9. Same as in 5th step, take normal breathing.

10. Inhale and bring the right leg in between the hands. This position is same as in the step 3.

11. Exhale and bring the left foot forward side of the right foot and touch the knees with forehead as in step 2.

12. Inhale, come up, stand erect with hands along the body and relax.

After completion of 12 rounds one gets tired & hence can perform Savasana.

Savasana :

Lie down on the ground with face upward and hands and legs apart. Then allow the whole body to relax completely. With the concentration of mind on different parts of the body starting from the toes to the head, a feeling of relaxation is propagated.

General Guidelines for Practice of Surya Namaskar :

Surya Namaskar should be done in empty stomach; morning time is the best time to perform, (at the time of sunrise).

These practices can be performed before or after bath, but allow about 15 minutes between practices & bath.

Daily practice essential for fast progress.

Practice it in correct sequence. Do not mix it up.

Women should not practice this during menstrual period.

Remove all tensions while performing this.

Surya Namaskar is a complete exercise. Along with the pronunciation of 'Omkar', the Bija Akhsara- 'Ha' and the sound 'R' which exist in every Mantra influence and stimulate the nerve centers in the brain leading to the respiratory, circulatory and digestive systems, make them more active, efficient and healthy. They keep spinal cord healthy and flexible, muscles active and improve brainpower, digestion, remove constipation and fatness. That also helps to increase stamina by removing mental anxiety & fickleness. This is useful for controlling diabetes & skin problems. It provides energy with luster to our body.

Book Reading: For One More Day- by Mitch Albom

For One More Day is the story of a mother and a son, and a relationship that covers a lifetime and beyond. It explores the question: What would you do if you could spend one more day with a lost loved one?

In our life time we sometimes forget the intimate, nurturing sacred world of our mental spectrum and invest more time on things instead of human beings, our loved ones and the people around us. “For One More Day” is a reminder to everybody to explore that loving peaceful spectrum of the mind.
